

Anastasia - It's me box!

That's my box where you can see some of my personal things that have sentimental value for me and generally they represent me.

- Pretty Girls-BOOK: That's my favourite book which has a lot of action and the plot is incredible. So if you reflect on how much I like reading, this could obviously be a thing that represents me.
- KEEPSAKE: There is a reminder of my primary school with all of the photos that had been taken for six years. This little book is really important to me because it is full of memories.
- EARPHONES: Another thing I believe that represents me a lot are my earphones if you take into consideration that music is the part of my life that I love the most because it makes me cheerful and happy when I'm in a bad mood.

•LIPGLOSS: I have also put in my box this lipgloss as I love my make-up and learning tips about this.

•EARRINGS: That's a gift of my grandmother. It's a pair of earrings which my granny gave to me before she died. For this reason this jewelery means a lot to me.

•POINT SHOES: I acquired these shoes after too much work and effort, so because of this I believe that these shoes have contributed a lot in my trajectory of dancing and that's why they are so significant for me.

•BALLET DEGREE: Here is my degree of royal academy of dance which certifies I have attend the London summer school. It was an unforgettable experience and has sentimental value for me.

•COSTUME: I would like you to see my first costume of a ballet performance which makes me remember those days when I used to be a little girl and having stage fright.

•TISCHU: There's a card deck of tischu. This is a Chinese game which is played with four or six people and has a little bit difficult rules. I really love this game as I have spent unlimited hours playing this.

10. LITTLE BEAR: It is a super cute teddy bear which was a present of my sister from Italy. She gave it to me after a long period that I haven't seen her. So every time that I would like to feel close to her, I just have to hold in my arms.
