

It's me box – Diana Silva

I have chosen my drumsticks because I play the drums, it is something I really love, and recently I've been nominated to be the drummer of the Youth Orchestra where I've been having drum classes.

"Macbeth" by William Shakespeare represents my passion for literature, along with my passion for plays and cinematography.

I brought my guitar pick because I play the guitar. I can only play the basic chords, but I intend to improve my skills on this instrument.

These are my earphones, I carry them everywhere, since I'm always, constantly listening to music.

The book "Looking for Alaska" by John Green is not exactly one of my favourites but it actually changed my point of view on love and made me grow up a bit, and that is truly important.

This is a postcard from Paris, I went there last year. Paris is absolutely one of my favourite cities in the whole world. This also shows my wish to travel everywhere.

I chose to include this hat because it reminds me of my younger brother, he has a hat similar to this one. But the hat is also a way to describe myself, it symbolizes the fact that I can be whoever I want to be, and that is a really important message.

I live near the beach, I love to surf and swim, especially in the summer, I really like living close to the ocean, and this small shell is from "Pedras Negras", a beach I frequently go to.

The book "Cosmos" by Carl Sagan shows my fascination with astronomy, the universe, philosophy and life itself; it makes me think a lot about life and all that surrounds us.

And last but not least, this is a video tape from the "Dead Poets Society" movie, it represents my wish to belong to past generations because of the music, movies and technologies used. It also shows my enthusiasm for old and classic movies, this is one of my favourites.
